Request for Homestay Relocation

In order to request relocation of homestay, this form must be filled out and submitted to the Homestay Coordinator with a letter from the student's biological parent(s) and a letter from the current homestay parents. Homestay relocation request must be made 30 days prior to the move and must be approved by the school's Homestay Coordinator. Students who move without prior approval from the school may be subject to relocation back to the original homestay or termination of the student's I-20. Students whose homestays are arranged by an authorized homestay agency must have the agency contact the school in writing about the relocation.
